OHS Business Partner

Timberlands Ltd is a world leading Forestry Management Company based in Rotorua, New Zealand, with a commitment to being the best and safest production forest in the world. Acting on behalf of the Kaingaroa Timberlands Partnership, Timberlands manages New Zealand's largest plantation forest, the 189,000 ha Kaingaroa Forest Estate, with an annual harvest of over 4.5 M tonnes.

We are looking for an experienced OHS Business Partner to join our team who can provide expert H&S leadership and advice in a forestry environment and can confidently identify and mitigate H&S risks in the workplace while building trusting relationships with our staff and contractors. Based in our Rotorua office, and part of a 5-person team, you will be accountable for:

- Implementing objectives of the OHS Strategy
- Promoting a 'Partnering' culture across the business that proactively strives to improve OHS performance
- Providing expert OHS advice (including mentoring and training) to influence Operations and other business units across the business in risk management and incident investigations
- Championing OHS policies, standards, procedures and work instructions to ensure OHS best practices are maintained to a high standard
- Identifying OHS inefficiencies and implementing innovative solutions
- Supporting the development, implementation and or maintenance of company-wide safety systems, training, governance and frontline leadership activities.
- Support the OHS team on project improvement work and issues as required

Our ideal candidate:

To be a success in this role, you will have a tertiary qualification in Operational OHS and Risk Management or Forestry and Environmental Management. You will be comfortable advocating, influencing and educating H&S best practice to both staff and contractors. You will be a team player with a collaborative work ethic, have exceptional communication skills and be comfortable working in both an office and field based environment. 4x4 driving experience is highly desirable.

What we offer:

If you're willing to put in the time and dedication, in return we offer you the opportunity to join a progressive and growing world class business with career and training opportunities to the envy of other industries. We offer the successful applicant a competitive salary, a benefits package including health and welfare insurances, a vehicle and flexible work hours to provide a good work life balance.

This is a permanent, full time position with an immediate start. Applicants should have current eligibility to work in New Zealand and already be residing here. Due to the operational requirements of this role you will need to reside in or live within a reasonable distance of Rotorua.

If this sounds like an opportunity you would be interested in please send your CV and cover letter to enquiries.timberlands@tll.co.nz by Friday 19 August 2022.
